Noche Azul Summer Series

SOR JUANA AUG 20

Interdisciplinary celebration of women in politics, arts and sciences.

The 17th-century colonial Mexican poet, scholar, and nun, Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz is renowned for her sharp, creative intellect and for challenging the accepted cultural norms that kept women largely in domestic confines. A pioneer of Mexican culture.

LA SIRENA JUL 16

Legends, Songs and Stories dedicated to
"La Tlanchana," Mexican Siren

From our inland towns, the Atotonilco Chane, "La Tlanchana" or "Mama Lanchana." Goddess Woman, resident of the lakes, islets, boulders, water springs and lagoons. Her skin is gray or black, fish-woman, serpent-woman. The Lanchana is our Siren Mother & keeper of our fresh waters. Sirena de Tule, Jorge Arzate S.
