

Editor's note: The first 2002 issue of La Voz introduces our readers continues to be present at the Citlali café, a café/arte installation by D has returned to San Antonio as an avenger of the gente bronce an

to a new superhero, Citlali: Xicana Super Hero. Citlali has taken up residence at the Esperanza and Deborah Vásquez. The exhibit and café will be on view at the Esperanza Center through February. Citlali and readers will be hearing her voz on various issues related to the Chicano community of San Anotnio.