

Notas Y Más

December 2009/January 2010

Brief notes to inform La Voz readers about events, issues and happenings in the community. Send announcements for Notas y Más to: lavoz@esperanzacenter.org or by mail to: 922 San Pedro, San Antonio, TX 78212. The deadline is the 10th of each month.

A new writer's group is forming that meets every Wednesday from 5-7 pm at Trey's House, 1709 Blanco Rd., (a nonprofit coffee house assisting people with head injury and others). Call 320-1904 or check www.treyshousesa.org LIT MAGAZINE, a free quarterly online magazine is accepting poetry submissions. Contact: sites.google.com/site/litmagazinenow or Lori at 534-7608 or lorisimpson123@gmail.com.

EntreFlamenco Company, the newest professional flamenco company in San Antonio, is set to premier the original production Flamenco para 4 Estaciones/Flamenco for 4 Seasons at The Sterling Houston Theater, December 11th and 12th at 8 pm. Tickets are available at EntreFlamenco DanzArt Center, 2932 Hillcrest Drive. Call 210-842-4926 or visit www.entreflamenco.com for more.

The City of Dallas Office of Cultural Affairs invites applications or nominations for the position of General Manager of the Latino Cultural Center. The ideal candidate would have a record managing a multi-disciplinary cultural facility; knowledge of both local and national Latino artists and arts organizations; fundraising and community relations experience; and be bilingual (Spanish). For info check: www.dallasculture.org or email cover letter and resume with salary history to maria.munozblanco@dallascityhall.com by January 11, 2010.

The True Spin Conference, A National Conference on Communications for Progressives, convenes January 21st and 22nd in Denver, Colorado. The conference will focus on how to use new media effectively, how to respond to the changing world of journalism, how to do a better job with communications strategy and framing, and more. Check www.truespinconference.com for more.

The 4th National Latino Congreso, to be held at the historic Camino Real Hotel in El Paso, TX from January 29-31, 2010 will convene Latino organizations, elected officials and community leaders from throughout the U.S. Action plans will be launched on justice for immigrants, climate change, saving homes, and creating jobs among other topics. For details see: www.latinocongreso.org

Chicana/o Environmental Justice Struggles for a Post-Neoliberal Age is the focus for the NACCS 2010 conference that will be held in Seattle, Washington from April 7-10, 2010. Proposals are now being accepted. Contact program chair, Prof. Devon Peña, dpena@naccs.org or check www.naccs.org for details.

Avenida Guadalupe Association - Save This Building!

1312 Guadalupe, otherwise known as the Pink Building, is an important structure in San Antonio's historic Westside. Throughout our city's history, too many buildings have come down, with our gente's stories blowing away with their dust. Please attend an upcoming meeting in February hosted by Avenida Guadalupe Association at Progreso Hall where you can voice your opinion about the many reasons to opt for preserving and rehabilitating old buildings for continued use instead of demolishing them. | 210.228.0201 for info.