

Lies They Started Before

The lies they started before my birth.
Now that I get it
they sho do hurt.
Something was taken,
and it was mine.
Then the thieves started lyin'.
I lived with those lies for 15 years.
And just recently I shed tears.
Things will be taken and you'll be sad.
But over time you'll change to mad.

Live Life to The Fullest

Moms.
They brought you into this world and they can easily take you out.
Which without them would result in no life.
Who cares for you?
When you're down, mad, and sad,
they allow you to live life to the fullest.
