

The Plan of My Future

The plan of my future,

The future of my dreams.

It used to be so bright,
but now it seems to be fading
with each passing day.

It's there but yet it seems
so far out of my reach.
So many obstacles in the way
that I have to overcome.

I had it all planned out:
high school, college,
and then a business of my own.
This is my plan of the future.

But even though this plan,
seems so hard to achieve.
I won't let go.
No, not yet.
