

Día de los muertos

Annual celebration of the Esperanza Peace & Justice Center's

Día de Muertos*
@ El Rinconcito de Esperanza

816 S. Colorado, SATX 78207

Admission is free!

Friday, Nov/ 1, 2024- 4 pm to 10 pm

Join us for displays of community altars/ofrendas honoring the dearly departed, música en vivo, face painting, and pan de muerto y ponche de muertos. Evening performances will include Calavera readings poking fun at the living, Literary Ofrendas remembering our muertitos, música and dancing. At dusk a procession will take place with *Katrin*as and Calacas wending their way through the barrio. All are welcome to join in—wearing calavera masks, face paint or dressed as characters for Day of the Dead. Bring instruments, noisemakers or your gritos. And, don't forget to visit the MujerArtes Cooperativa for Day of the Dead clay artworks.

Check Esperanza's website at www.esperanzacenter.org for upcoming workshops and talleres for Día de Muertos including: making tissue flowers, installing your altars & ofrendas, cutting out papel picado, molding sugar skulls and more!

Sign up if you wish to dedicate an altar or ofrenda to a departed loved one or to family members who have passed OR if you want to remember noted figures of the past who have long left this earthly existence. Altars will be installed at the Casa de Cuentos, the Casita and outdoors at 816 S. Colorado. Call 210.228.0201 or send an email to esperanza@esperanzacenter.org to reserve a space for your ofrenda, today!

Call for Calaveras &
Literary Ofrendas

Deadline: October 4th to submit

Literary Ofrendas honoring the dead with photos, artwork, poems or recuerdos and Calaveras poking fun or killing off family, friends or politicians with satirical poems.

Send to lavoz@esperanzacenter.org

background graphic: Juan Carlos Fonseca Mata