

Anuncios

October, 2024

Check individual websites, FB and other social media for information on community meetings previously listed in La Voz. For meetings and events scheduled at the Esperanza Peace & Justice Center check: www.esperanzacenter.org or call 210.228.0201.

Indigenous Dignity Day Human Rights March

October 12, 2024—San Antonio, Tejas

Piazza Italia Plaza
700 W. Martin

March starts at 3:30pm,
Rally at 1pm

Info @
indigenousway@gmail.com or Call Antonio at:
210. 542. 9271

TexasIndigenousCouncil.com

Photo By: Ronald Claiborne

Remember your tax deductible gifts

Your donation supports the Esperanza!
go to: www.esperanzacenter.org/Donate or send check to:

Esperanza Peace & Justice Center
922 San Pedro Ave • SA, TX 78212

Become a Monthly Donor!

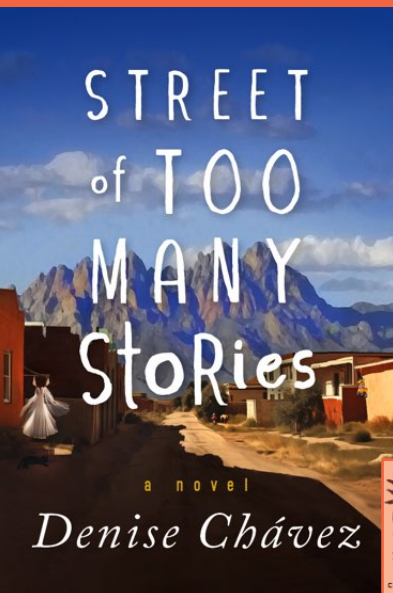

Support the Esperanza

www.esperanzacenter.org/donate or call 210-228-0201

to donate

Your donation helps us advocate for you.

"In Street of Too Many Stories, Denise Chávez has created a magical place populated by four families. From the street itself, filled with spirits who dance and visit homes, to the mothers fathers and children who stay there their entire lives or leave and return, to those who hold on to hope or whose dreams are crushed, Encantada Street is a microcosm of the pain, love, dysfunction and hope that is humanity.

—Dr. Yolanda Chávez Leyva, Director, Institute of Oral history & Associate Professor, University of Texas @ El Paso

Encuentro de la Gran Alianza Latinoamericana y del Caribe de Trabajadoras del Hogar

Construyendo una coalición abierta para elevar las voces de todas

18 al 21 de Octubre, 2024

*Centro Esperanza de Paz y Justicia/
Esperanza Peace & Justice Center*

Para mas información escribe a: domesticasunidas.org@gmail.com

